100 VIRAL HOOKS

Fill-in-the-blank opening lines, taken from reels with millions of views. Pick one, fill in the blanks, film.

People think you need (insert big number) (insert things), but in reality you only need (insert small number).

Never, ever start a (insert thing) before you understand these (insert #) things.

Stop (insert common action) until you (insert one fix).

HOW TO USE THIS

1 PICK A HOOK THAT FITS YOUR VIDEO

Start with what you want to say, then find the hook that opens it best. Every hook is sorted by views, biggest first.

2 FILL IN THE BLANKS

The gold parts are yours to change. Swap in your industry, your numbers and your words. Keep the rest of the sentence the same: the rhythm is what makes it work.

3 WATCH THE ORIGINAL

Every hook links to the reel it came from. How it's said and what's on screen in the first three seconds matters as much as the words.

4 TEST THREE VERSIONS

Film the same video with three different hooks and post all three as trial reels. Keep the one that wins.

The examples are written word for word from the original videos, so you can see exactly how each hook was used.
